Build for the future – Serensia Woods

Company overview

- ▶ Serensia Woods is a subsidiary of Macao-based HN Group. HN Group is a conglomerate in Macau with businesses across retail, distribution, healthcare, engineering & construction, tourism and agriculture.
- ▶ With a vision of providing high-end and innovative wellness services, Serensia Woods has established the first site in Zhuhai's Hengqin area – part of the Greater Bay Area (GBA), integrating preventive medicine, anti-aging treatment, retirement vacation and blissful retirement living.

Why HSBC

- 01 Established presence in Macau with market-leading expertise in sustainable financing.
- 02 Tailored sustainability-based financing to empower Serensia Woods Group in its green journey.
- 03 Expert advice in green finance, sustainable development and green project governance.

Customer needs

- ▶ To build a world-class wellness destination with an Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) concept for offering a better quality of lifestyle, Serensia Woods needed a financial institution with expertise in green finance to offer a green building loan that aligns with their sustainability ambition.
- ▶ The company required financing for the development of the green building project to increase the environmental impact of energy saving and afforestation.

Our solution

HSBC Macau granted Serensia Woods a green building loan to finance the development and capital investment related to a green building project. It enabled the smooth construction of the project, and helped to gain green building industry recognition.

Serensia Woods enjoyed preferential rate upon achieving high quality of construction standard with LEED Gold-level certification.

It is HSBC Macau's first green building loan to support a local conglomerate for its green development project in the GBA. It reinforces our ongoing strategic commitment to helping businesses navigate the net-zero transition.

We are very honoured to be the first recipient of HSBC Macau's green building loan. With the continuous support from HSBC, we look forward to furthering our efforts together in exploring new paradigms in sustainable aging and to benefit society.”
